NEW GRID COACH TO HAVE BAPTISM AT TELSTAR THIS FALL

Richard W. Collins, recently elected head football coach at Telstar Regional High School, is a native of Lewiston. He is a graduate of Lewiston High School in 1965 where he played football and baseball for four years. Two years he was an All-Maine halfback. He was a critical factor on two State Championship teams.

He attended preparatory school at the Hotchkiss School in Connecticut where he played under the tutelage of former Bowdoin Coach Nels Cory and gave an excellent performance as a halfback on a championship team.

Mr. Collins is a graduate of the University of Maine at Orono in 1971 where he played four years of football for Walt Abbott's Black Bears specializing as a wingback.

Although this is his first year of teaching and coaching experience he comes well prepared based upon past experience and is looking forward to assuming his first head coaching assignment in the tough Mountain Valley Conference.

CASH RECEIPTS FROM MAINE FARM PRODUCTS UP 3.5% OVER PREVIOUS YEAR

Cash receipts from the marketing of Maine farm products revealed an increase in 1970 of 3.5 per cent over the previous year according to figures released this week by the Maine Department of Agriculture.

Commissioner Maynard C. Dolloff reported farmers in the State realized over $8.6 million more than last year than in 1969 while total cash farm income in 1970 was $254,419,000 compared to $245,761,000 in 1969.

Of these amounts, livestock products accounted for the greatest share representing nearly 65 per cent in both years, although income from crops showed a larger increase than livestock.

The 1969 figure for livestock and livestock products in 1969 was $156,350,000 while the 1970 amount was $162,123,000 or a 2.3 per cent increase. Crops in 1969 yielded $7,206,000 while the 1970 figure was $7,251,000, or a gain of 0.6 per cent.

COMMENTS FROM THE OFFICE OF THE TOWN MANAGER

The high winds and heavy rains of Wednesday did minor damage locally. The greatest problems came as a result of limbs falling from trees.

Our appropriation for cutting trees is expended for this year. We have been told we will receive some money from the state to assist in our tree planting program. With the assumption we will receive these funds, we are doing some emergency work such as trimming limbs that are dangerous.

It is apparent mailing the tax bills earlier and offering a discount is bringing much more money to the office. At this time last year we had collected $3,800 on the current years taxes. This year $37,000 has been collected. We hope we will not have to borrow for the next school assessment which is due Sept. 30.

Taxpayers who mail their money for taxes should remember to discount 2% on real estate and personal taxes up until Sept. 1.

Excise taxes become one-half price on Sept. 1.

LABOR DEPT. FIGURES SHOW 0.6% RISE IN C. P. I.

The Consumer Price Index rose 0.6 per cent in June to 121.4 (1967=100), the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics reports.

Higher prices for food, homes, and most services accounted for about three-fourths of the increase. The June CPI was 4.5 percent above a year ago.

On a seasonally adjusted basis, the increase in the June index was 0.5 per cent. The annual rate of change for the six months ending in June was 4.0 per cent, less than the 4.9 per cent for the six months ending in December 1970 and the 6.0 per cent in the six months ending in June of last year.

During the quarter ending in June, the CPI rose at an annual rate of 5.3 per cent. After seasonal adjustment, the food index in June advanced more than in May, but the index for nonfood commodities rose at a much slower pace.

Charges for services advanced slightly less than in May but more than during the February-April period when the mortgage-interest rate index was dropping markedly.

Seasonally unadjusted prices of grocery store food, which usually increase 0.6 percent in June for seasonal reasons, advanced 0.9 per cent. Price increases for poultry, fruits and vegetables, beef, and dairy products were larger than seasonal. On the other hand, pork prices did not rise as much as they usually do in June, and egg prices fell sharply. Prices of restaurant meals and snacks rose 0.5 per cent.

PRE-SEASON FOOTBALL MEETING SCHEDULED AT T. R. H. S. NEXT MONDAY

All varsity football candidates for the 1971 season should report to the Health Suite at Telstar Regional High School on Monday, Aug. 16, at 5 o'clock, with new Head Football Coach Dick Collins. All candidates will receive physical examinations at this time and will be given further information concerning practice schedules.

SENIOR CITIZENS MEET AT RUMFORD POINT TUESDAY

Thirty-four members of the Senior Citizens enjoyed a pleasant meeting and a delicious meal in the cool basement dining room of the Rumford Point Church Tuesday of this week. Rev. Carl Kingsbury was guest minister. The dinner hostesses were: Barbara Ellingwood, Jeanette Lamson, Helen Stearns and Georgia Bradbury.

These officers were elected to serve for one year: Honorary President, Mrs. Florence Bond; President, Elizabeth Glines; Vice President, Marjorie Cummings; Secretary, Minnie Wilson; Treasurer, Sarah Stevens; Reporter, Pearl Tibbets; Reporter Oxford County Conference, Mildred Lowell; Official Greeter, Gladys Cross; Sunshine Chairman, Maud Hunt.

Prices of nonfood commodities rose 0.4 per cent in May, a more than seasonal advance. Apparel commodities' prices edged down seasonally. Prices rose for most other nonfood commodities, particularly homes, used cars, gasoline, tobacco products, and household durables. New car prices held steady instead of declining seasonally.

Charges for consumer services rose 0.5 per cent in June. There were sharp advances in charges for home repair and maintenance services. Charges for transportation services rose significantly because of higher taxicab and airline fares, and increases in auto-repair charges.

THUNDERSTORMS—HIGH WINDS RIP THROUGH MAINE

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Severe thunderstorms and gusty winds ripped down trees and power lines across a wide area of Maine Wednesday. One death was attributed to the storm.

Ned Perkins, 21, of Oxford, was killed when he brushed against a felled power line near his home, according to the sheriff's department.

A tornado watch for western Maine was in effect from noon to 6 p. m. with the only twister sighting reported in the Fryeburg area of Oxford County.

Trees and power lines were reported down in parts of Androscoggin, Franklin, Kennebec, Oxford and York Counties according to State Civil Defense headquarters in Augusta, with scattered disruptions in power and telephone service.

A mobile home was ripped off its foundation in Watford, while another one tipped over in Skowhegan. In Waldoboro, along the coast, residents said total darkness set in around mid-afternoon.

Lightning triggered a two alarm fire that destroyed the home of William E. McCarthy outside of Rumford, with the loss estimated at $20,000. There were no injuries.

Winds of 30 to 40 miles per hour were reported throughout virtually the entire state. The highest reported winds were 49 miles per hour in Limestone in Aroostook County.

GREENWOOD CITY

Mrs. Coliste Morgan, Corrae.
I was pleased to have company in hiding this week, Zylpha and Fay.

There was promise in the morning sun and the peace of summer resting upon the fields Friday morning when we went up the farm cart road. It led to a place wide to the sky while below us the farmhouse was crouching; warming its old back.

With our binoculars we gazed within the old barn door where a mote of sunlight crept through.

In the little garden were colors so vivid they rivaled a rainbow; marigolds, zinnias and petunias.

Mary Selden says, "August is an interlude in a world so warm and bright, every aspect, every scene offers some new delight". How true, but like every other month there is always something special.

We passed the grass grown cellar holes, the only trace of those who called this home in some lost time.

Overhead scuds were blowing across the sky like a flock of woolly white sheep peering after their leader.

We crossed the fields in places sprigged with juniper to where an old wall held back the crowding firs and old apple trees were trying to reach the light.

How glorious the air was! The ponds gladdened the valley below.

Since the rains the little brook in the woods darted over sunny shallows and into deeper pools.

We journeyed back to eat our lunch under the twin birches; one on either side of a huge rock.

The wind's hushed song, whispering a lost melody, drifted through their arched boughs, felt the grasses and breast the ponds. Then it filled over the waiting hills. We enjoyed it all. It brought a song of yesterday, filled with remembrances for our hearts belong to these Maine hills lifting their pine-topped summits to the sky.

While resting, our thoughts were of rocks and trees, of skies and water and green fields.

From a short distance the chickadee sang its winter song in summer.

With sleek sophisticated curves, the highway went its way from east to west and all too soon we had to join it and take our separate ways.

"We Maine folk may be funny but we think our land's the best. Where all may live and love and work Have fun and play and rest."

Helen T. Pratt

A letter from Ruth with whom I hiked so many times last year told me of her "doings". She wrote of a drive up Stark Mountain. The whole distance is 60 miles and the last 10 miles is a forest road which winds up to the top via a series of switchbacks. The road is just a narrow shelf with no fence on the edge. However it was so beautiful with range after range of mountains, many of them still snow-capped that I was real busy just looking. The mountain itself is 6000 feet high and there are no trees to obstruct the view. There was a patch of snow just below the tower and glacial lilies were all around it, some coming right up through the snow. Another beautiful flower was pink heather and there was an abundance of it.

She also wrote that they began their float trip this last week from Fort Benson to Fort Peck Reservoir, 160 miles or more.

I have thought of her often as she sees all those lovely things. Her lovely birthday card with the pre-

From "Bible and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy the following citation will be read: "Marriage should improve the human system, becoming a barrier against vice, a protection to women, strength to men, and a center for the affection."

The Lesson Service is entitled "Bond" Services at First Church of Christ Scientist, Main and High Sts., Bethel, N. H., begin at 11 a. m.

RETIRED EPISCOPAL BISHOP TO SPEAK AT KIMBALL REUNION

Bishop Robert M. Hatch

On Saturday, Aug. 14, when the Kimball Family Association holds its third reunion at Bridgton Academy in North Bridgton, the chief speaker will be recently retired Bishop Robert M. Hatch of the Western Massachusetts Episcopal Diocese.

Bishop Hatch, who is now living at Randolph, N. H., will speak on the Battle of Bennington, and the role of Northern New England in the American Revolution. Many early Kimballs also took part in this.

Bishop Hatch who was born in 1919, and graduated from Harvard in 1943, has a master's degree in history from Columbia, and attended Union Theological Seminary, graduating from the Episcopal Theological School in 1950. Following this he served St. John's Church, Arlington, Mass., as rector, and then was Dean at Waterbury prior to serving as Suffragan Bishop of Connecticut for seven years. He was Bishop of the Western Massachusetts Episcopal Diocese 13 years.

Chairman Robert W. Kimball, Hampton, N. H. (vice president of Bentley College) has also announced that professional genealogist, Dana Parks, Jr., Salisbury, N. H., will speak on tracing one's lineage and give individual help in the morning. Mr. Parks who attended Northeastern University Law School, recently of Bethel is probably less than 6000, and how long can these people stand to pay taxes that are beyond their means.

Last year at the school budget meeting a budget (that was so over-padded that everyone should have been able to see through it) was presented and cut probably less than the directors expected. A lot of the things that the District was going to have to do without seem to have squeezed their way into being, even the sports program and the new pickup truck. The school district is just going to have to get along on less money, regardless of what they have to do to cut costs. The people of the town and the district can not afford to pay the atrocious taxes that this nightmare of a school thinks it needs to operate.

I don't have the answer, but something is going to have to be done.

It's time for concerned citizens to get off their butts and do something about the tax situation.

Warren C. Smith

Dear Sir:

I would like to have this printed in the Bethel Citizen.

I do not understand how the people of the town of Bethel have let the outrageous tax situation in the town of Bethel go unchecked for so long. I fully realize that the town of Bethel must have income from taxes to pay its debts; but when it comes to the point of taxing the common man out of his home, it is getting a little bit ridiculous. Most people do not like to admit that they can not pay their taxes or other bills, but when a man has to pay 10% or more of his wages for property taxes things are getting out of hand.

Everyone knows that our fantastic new school is the cause of this increase in taxes, but how long can this constant increase in taxes go on before the average man is taxed out of his home. Without substantiating facts, the average income in the town of Bethel is probably less than 6000, and how long can these people stand to pay taxes that are beyond their means.

Teacher Profiles

Mrs. Elsie Dresser

Until her retirement this past June, Mrs. Elsie Dresser was a member of the staff at the Elementary School in Andover. She is obviously very biased towards the Andover school district where she devoted nearly 26 years at the teaching profession.

Mrs. Dresser was a native of Phillips, Maine, attending local schools. After graduating from F. N. S. she began her career in the Elm Street School in Andover.

Her teaching was interrupted after marrying a local fellow, Everett Dresser, and devoted some years to their family, participating in civic affairs such as serving as Town Clerk for 19 years. In addition she has always been active in church and local clubs, serving on various committees. She has also served as a consultant to county and state organizations.

She has continued her professional education by taking courses from the University of Maine to resume her service in the East Andover School. Immediately prior to her retirement she taught fourth grade and departmental mathematics.

Their three daughters chose careers other than education. Maxine Thurston, who pursued a business career now assists her husband in the business of making custom furniture in Brandon, Vt. Joyce Birch is busy with a family and traveling with her husband who is at present on his second duty tour in Vietnam as a LTC. Frances Kerchner and her husband are doing graduate study at Columbia University. Wayne combined that with his flying for TWA. Mrs. Dresser is also the proud grandmother of nine grandchildren.

Among other activities she is a member of the local Faculty Club, the Maine Teachers Association, the National Education Association. She was privileged to enjoy visiting many of the national parks and many of the Western States.

essn, purchased a home just outside Bethel village and are in the process of completing an extensive remodeling project. They have one son, David.

Larry, as he has been addressed by most, has varied interests which consist of music, gardening, fishing, fishing, nature, politics and sports.

FEDERAL HIGHWAY USE TAX DUE AUGUST 31
Owners of large trucks, truck-trailers, or buses may be required to file a federal highway use tax return, Form 2290 by Aug. 31, Whitney L. Wheeler, District Director of Internal Revenue in Maine, said recently.

The tax year begins July 1, and runs through the following June 30. Subsequent returns may be required for vehicles used for the first time on public highways after July.

IRS Publication 349, "Federal Use Tax on Trucks, Truck-Trailers, and Buses," provides detailed information on this subject and may be obtained by dropping a post card to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, P. O. Box 787, Augusta, Maine 04330.

EASTERN COYOTE IDENTIFIED IN AROOSTOOK COUNTY

An animal identified as an eastern coyote (Canis latrans var.) has been shot in Garfield, Aroostook County.

Henry S. Carson of Ashland, regional biologist for the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Game, said that the animal was shot by Wayne Robinson on his farm in Garfield. The identification came from Volt B. Hichens, assistant leader, Maine Cooperative Wildlife Research Unit, at the University of Maine.

This is the farthest north in the state that there is confirmation of an eastern coyote being taken. Garfield is next to Ashland, which is west of Presque Isle. Biologist Francis Dunn of Patten turned in an eastern coyote taken in Benedicta, southwest of Houlton.

There have been several confirmations of eastern coyotes in western and southern sections of the state.

SMITH - ROWE

A very pretty summer wedding was held at the First Congregational Church in Andover on August 7 when Miss Brenda Lee Rowe daughter of Mrs. Doris Rowe, Andover and Morris Rowe, Hollis Center, became the bride of David R. Smith Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, Andover. Rev. Lester Street of the Calvary Congregational Church, Andover, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Rowe

Mrs. Robert Walton, Dixfield, former organist at the Congregational Church, was guest organist. The church was decorated with pink and white glads.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor length white lace gown over satin. The rose patterned gown had long sleeves, scalloped neckline, trimmed with pearls and sequins. She wore a shoulder length veil that fell from a seeded tiara. She carried a cascade of white roses and carnations.

All three attendants wore similar gowns and carried similar Colonial bouquets to match their gowns. Maid of honor was Miss Judith McLellan, Windham. Her gown was blue with a rose and carnation bouquet. The bridesmaids were sisters of the groom, Mrs. Robert MacKenney, in lavender; and Mrs. Albert Buzzell in turquoise, both of Andover.

Richard Rowe, Andover, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Diane Wells, Andover, the bride's cousin, acted as Flower Girl. She wore a pink floor length gown similar to the other attendants. She also carried a colonial bouquet.

The best man was a friend of the groom, David Hutchins, East Andover. The ushers were both brothers-in-law of the groom, Albert Buzzell and Robert MacKenney, Andover.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Christian Education Building. Miss Christine Frazier, Andover, circulated the guest book. Miss Christine Coolidge, Andover, assisted by Miss Frazier, had charge of the gift table. The bridesmaids had charge of dipping punch.

Mrs. Ronald Wells, Andover, aunt of the bride, made and decorated the four tier bride's cake. This was topped with a bride and groom and a cross. Circling the cake were one dozen white sweetheart roses.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white dress with white accessories. The groom's mother wore a Mrs. Ruth Noyes of Copake, N. Y., also visited her mother, Mrs. Addie Lancaster, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ripley of Portsmouth, N. H., were at their house in Magalloway last week. They are both quite ill.

George Asdorian of Boston with a friend are at the camp owned by Malcolm Harvey for a few days.

Mrs. Hazel Harvey has gone to the Hanover Hospital for a check-up. She does not know when she can return.

Mrs. Corline Wilmer and her niece, Michelle Albert, both of Penobscot, R. I., are at the home of Corline's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Harvey, Michelle will stay to visit for a while.

Mrs. Glen Nevers of Kingston, N. H., with her four children spent the last week with her sister, Mrs. Phyllis Parsons and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Albert of Berlin are staying with Mr. and Mrs. George Stranger and family who are having a two week vacation at their farm in Magalloway.

Mrs. Bertha West is in Milan at the home of her daughter Mrs. Florence Balsar.

Ernest Hinkley is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hinkley and is out of the Army. He has not as yet decided what he wants to do about a position.

Lee Sykes with a friend was at his camp in Magalloway over the week end. He brought a new boat with him and went to Aziscoos Lake, fishing.

All three attendants wore similar gowns and carried similar Colonial bouquets to match their gowns.

After a short honeymoon the couple will reside in an apartment at Snow Valley Inn, Andover.

The bride has resided in Andover one year, moving there from Windham. She attended school in Windham and is a student at Telstar Regional High School, Bethel.

The groom graduated from Andover High School in 1968. He was an apprentice at Bath Iron Works in the fall of 1968. He is self-employed, operating a skidder for the Great Northern Paper Co. He is a member of the National Guard.

Guests included Mrs. Nina Durant, great grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe, grandparents of the bride; Melinda Rowe, aunt; Harlan Sayward, great great uncle; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rowe, aunt and uncle, all of Windham; and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wells, aunt and uncle; Mrs. Jessie Pendexter, grandmother; all of Andover; Robert J. Pendexter, Portland, uncle; and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Adler, Orono, aunt and uncle; Mark and Kevin Rowe, brothers of the bride.

R APOCRINES AND ECCRINES EVERYBODY HAS THEM

Your body has millions of tiny useful eccrine sweat glands which prevent the body from overheating by secreting a clear odorless liquid that is mostly water. In areas where this liquid can not evaporate, the underarms and on the feet, the sweat can be noticeable and uncomfortable. But, this wetness alone does not cause body odor.

Body odor can come from the less numerous apocrine glands which work mainly in the underarm area. These glands secrete a complex organic fluid that is broken down by normal skin bacteria to form a smelly substance. A deodorant will just hide a body odor but an anti-perspirant works against both odor and wetness. We carry a complete selection of these products and can recommend one to you that is non-irritating.

Due to the increased number of prescriptions and in order to keep up good service, it would be to our mutual advantage, if you would please phone in re-fill prescriptions. — Thank you.
